“ Grandma, your love was and always will be everlasting. You taught me so much when I was little: how to be empathetic, to live life passionately, and to appreciate the blessings from our Lord and Savior. I'll miss you, but I'll never forget you. From now on, I'll light a candle to remember you and the loving heart and soul you shared with everyone you touched.

“ Wow, I'm at a loss for words because I just saw Ms. Ann, talked with her, briefly, gave her a hug and a kiss on her forehead, as well as prayed with her on this past Wednesday morning. I knew her time would be soon but she also had a spirit of peace about her. I remembered having lunch with her at Cracker Barrel in Louisville several months ago, with both she and her beautiful daughter-in-law, Lorrie and I remembered a couple visits with her some years back, even dancing along side her, doing the “Wobble” at a Buffalo Soldier's event in Elizabethtown, KY. Ms. Ann could hold her own on that dance floor. I'm so glad I was able to meet her. Now she can rest easy and I pray her family's strength and comfort during this time of loss.
