“ My heart is crushed and words can't explain the SHOCK of losing my Little Sister!!
Just the thought of how this could have happened continues to play through my mind cause there is so many unanswered questions and even though we may not have talked everyday, we knew the Love of Sisters and were each other stood.
You may not know but you have touched lives in ways you couldn't Imagine.
Now that you've earned your wings it's time for you to take flight cause Daddy is waiting on you. The girls will be straight cause they know they are wrapped in Love!
Love you for Life Baby D

“ Oh my heart is broken upon learning of the passing of this beautiful and brave young woman. She balanced motherhood, marriage, work and chronic illness, every single day. Strong presence in this life and now even stronger presence on the other side. We are blessed to have known her. With love and prayers, UKC Bluegrass Dialysis Center Staff
