“ I’m a cashier at the walmart in Arizona near where George lived before he moved away! We always joked about Walmart and life events...Always said if he won the lottery, we would go to Disney land....We both talked about our golf and he was so happy to get golf clubs before he left! Talked about his security job and his family...He was waiting to hear about getting the next security job! Just didn’t pass the stress test I believe...We have been messaging each other as friends only and I was worried that I didn’t hear from him and just decided to check an obituary! I couldn’t believe my eyes! How sad that I lost a friend.....I just hope it was peaceful! See you on the golf course in heaven ! Get us a tee time my friend!

“ Butch, you were Mr. Cool in high school. You took me to the 1966 FLHS Snow Ball; you taught me to drive a stick shift in your tan VW bug; and you laughed at me because I couldn't play Oklahoma on the piano. Rest in peace my friend.
