“ This was a hard pill to swallow. To Ms. Elaine, Tonja, Donella, Bobby, DeAsia and the grand babies: Ravon and his family is and always will be family to The Robersons. There are too many memories to count. But 43rd was our beginning and seemingly never ending. Ravon is a little brother to me and I was so glad to see him one last time while home in 2024. Now you can rest little brother. I will miss the jokes, the countless times you came to my house with Jimmy and more than anything, how we always rallied around one another as a family when things were good and/or bad. We will love you always and never forget you. God has you now as He only gave you for a moment. Sleep well little brother. God bless and comfort all of the family and friends during this time.

My brother n law Ravon's calm and gentle countenance was one for me to emulate. That was just one of the ways we bonded as brothers in law. I'll miss our rides together; competing to determine which one of us could best sing the lyrics to Anita Baker songs (our favorite songstress). I'm impressed Ravon, I've never met a person that was a bigger fan than me. I'll miss you lil brudda. But I take solace in knowing that when our purpose is accomplished on this earth, to be absent from our earthly bodies, is to be present with the Lord. Therein lies the faith that you can Rest in Paradise, Rest in Peace. Love you with all my heart lil bro. This is not goodbye, it's "see ya later."
